

VENDOR ACCESS FLORIDA EBT CARD SPOT DCF VERSION

Video

Audio

Access Florida EBT card graphic Needy family on a bench	This is the Access Florida EBT card. Vendors redeeming food assistance benefits are helping needy families to get back on their feet.
Falling money Grocery, EBT card scan	Fraudulent use of food assistance benefits cost Florida taxpayers millions of dollars each year. Vendors have a responsibility to combat misuse and fraud that can occur with food assistance benefits.
Grocery, families shopping Prohibited items Close up hands card exchange Close up hands card for cash exchange	Food assistance benefits can only be used to buy certain food items. They cannot be used to purchase alcohol, tobacco or other restricted items. Food assistance benefits cannot be shared except with designated household members; nor can they be exchanged for cash or traded for other goods and services.
Fraud/Felony graphic	Public assistance fraud is a felony!
Prohibited items Close up hands card for cash exchange Access Florida EBT card DENIED graphic Police lights	If someone tries to use their food assistance benefits in a fraudulent manner, by attempting to purchase unauthorized items, tries to exchange their benefits for cash or you suspect someone is using a stolen card, you must report it to your local law enforcement agency.
Children focused/unfocused staring DCF infographic	Music fade