

Extension of Maintenance Adoption Subsidy (EMAS)

Participant Guide

Office of Child Welfare

12/3/2018

Introduction

Why This, Why Now? Title IV-E Waiver

- In 2007, Florida entered into a Title IV-E Demonstration Waiver which allowed the state to:
 - Waive certain provisions of the Title IV-E Social Security Act.
 - Use the funds for a wide variety of child welfare purposes rather than being restricted to eligible children in licensed foster care homes or institutions.

Why This, Why Now? Title IV-E Waiver Expiration

- The Title IV-E Waiver expired in September 2018. Florida requested and was granted an extension until September 2019.
- With the sunset of the waiver, the Department expects to lose $90 million dollars in revenue that goes to the CBCs to fund services to families and positions.

Why This, Why Now? Path Forward

- Path Forward is the statewide initiative to prepare for the post-waiver environment.
 - The Department has identified initiatives that can be used to draw down additional federal funds to support the state's Child Welfare System:
 - Title IV-E Extended Foster Care (EFC) and Extended Maintenance Adoption Subsidy (EMAS)
 - Guardianship Assistance Program (GAP)
 - Title IV-E eligibility clean-up
 - Candidacy

Current Maintenance Adoption Subsidy (MAS) Program

- Adoptive parents who enter into an Adoption Assistance Agreement (AAA) when adopting a child who meets the definition of special needs are eligible to receive maintenance adoption payments and Medicaid.
 - Maintenance Adoption Subsidy and Medicaid both end when the child turns 18 years old.
 - Florida has elected to use the option in the Social Security Act to utilize Title IV-E funds to provide adoption assistance for young adults age 18-21.

Extension of Maintenance Adoption Subsidy (EMAS) Program

- Available to adoptive parents who entered into an initial AAA for a 16 or 17-year-old special needs child.
- Young adults are able to receive a Maintenance Adoption Subsidy and Medicaid until the age of 21.
- This new program will:
 - Reduce the risk of a child remaining in foster care.
 - Provide additional financial support to adoptive parents.
 - Allow CBC lead agencies to provide additional support to adoptive families.

Workshop Topics

- Adoption Assistance Agreement (AAA) established at age 16 or 17
- Youth Transitioning to Young Adult (60-Day Period and 18th Birthday)
- Continued Program Eligibility
- Implementation Considerations

Adoption Assistance Agreement Established at Age 16 or 17

Adoption Assistance Agreement

- Must Establish Initial AAA and Elect EMAS at age 16 or 17

Discussion with Adoptive Family

- Every adoptive family who adopts a child at the age of 16 or 17 must be told about the EMAS and its purpose.
- To qualify, adoptive parents must opt in during the initial AAA.
 - If the EMAS is not included as part of the AAA prior to adoption finalization, the family cannot participate in the program.

The screenshot displays the 'Florida Safe Families Network' application. The top menu bar includes 'Hand Book', 'Print', 'Audit', 'Spell Check', and 'Help'. The main interface is divided into two panes. The left pane, titled 'Create Case Items', contains a list of categories with dropdown menus: Administration, Adoption, Assessment and Planning, Child Placement Agreement, Education, Eligibility, Family Assessment, File Cabinet, Forms, Investigation, Legal, Medical/Mental Health, Meeting, MCR, Narrative, Placement/Services, Planning, Special Conditions Referral, and Youth/Young Adult. The 'Youth/Young Adult' category is highlighted with a green box, and its sub-items, 'Independent Living Record' and 'Extended Maintenance Adoption Subsidy', are also highlighted. The right pane, titled 'Cases', shows a case named 'Starnell, Mommy'. Below this, the 'Case Participants' section lists several individuals with their phone numbers and dates of birth. A green arrow points from a green box labeled 'Create from Youth/Young Adult' to the 'Youth/Young Adult' category in the left pane. At the bottom right, there are 'Create' and 'Close' buttons.

Adoption Assistance Agreement – Termination

Extended Maintenance Adoption Subsidy Payments

- EMAS payments begin once:
 - The child turns 18.
 - All parties have signed the EAAA.
 - Supporting documentation of the qualifying activity is received.

Eligibility and Enrollment

- If the need for EMAS was not determined prior to the youth's 18th birthday and the adoptive parents feel they have been wrongly denied the subsidy, they have the right to appeal the denial.
 - If it is found that it was wrongly denied, retroactive payments will be made dating back to the date the family requested the subsidy in writing.

Title IV-E Eligibility

- Adoptive parents and young adults may participate regardless of Title IV-E eligibility status prior to age 18.
 - Participation allows young adults to receive various program benefits, such as adoption subsidy payments and Medicaid.
 - If the young adult's adoption eligibility before 18 was determined TANF eligible, a final Adoption TANF eligibility determination must be completed to document the young adult as TANF ineligible.

Continued Program Eligibility

Continued Participation in EMAS

- Maintain Qualifying Activity
- Redetermination of Young Adult's Qualifying Activity
 - Every 6 Months
 - Change in Qualifying Activity

Termination of EMAS

- Program Terminates When:
 - Young Adult is Unable to Document a Qualifying Activity
 - Young Adult Turns 21
 - Opt-out
 - Adoptive parent or Young Adult is deceased
 - Young Adult not Receiving Support from Adoptive Parent
- Requires Notification of the Department

Readmission to EMAS

- Young Adult May Re-enter until 21 with a Qualifying Activity
- Requires New Extended Adoption Assistance Agreement

Ongoing Program Eligibility Requirements

- To remain in EMAS, young adults must continue to participate in at least one qualifying activity. They can switch activities at any time.
- It is the family's responsibility to notify the Department or CBC of any change in circumstances, including moving out of state, within 48 hours of the change.
 - It is the CBC's responsibility to let families know about this requirement.

Re-Determination

- Re-determination of the young adult's participation in a qualifying activity must be completed by the Child Welfare Professional every six months or upon learning of a change.
- Re-determination is uploaded into FSFN.

Re-Determination Timeframes

- Written notification requesting proof of continued participation in a qualifying activity is sent to the adoptive parent/young adult 45 days prior to the six month re-determination period.
- Upon receipt of documentation, evaluate for re-determination.
 - Documentation is considered current only if the young adult was engaging in a qualifying activity within 30 days of re-determination.
- Documentation of participation in a qualifying activity must be received no later than 30 days after the six month re-determination period.

Young Adult Program Eligibility – Redetermination Reasons

Process for Termination When Qualifying Activity Is Not Received

- If documentation of the qualifying activity is not received:
 - Program eligibility status is ineligible.
 - Adoption subsidy payments are retained.
 - Written notification to Regional DCF staff is made to initiate the Chapter 120 denial process.
- If the Department prevails in the Chapter 120 denial process, the young adult's program eligibility remains ineligible, Medicaid ends, and EAAA is terminated.
- If the Department does not prevail, a new EAAA is not needed, appeal is unchecked, and a new YAPE page is created to show the young adult is eligible, and service starts with backdate.

Other Program Termination Reason

- Young adult turns 21.
- Adoptive parent and young adult voluntarily opt out.
- Adoptive parent or young adult is deceased.
- Young adult is no longer receiving support from adoptive parent.

Appeal Notification

Young Adult Program Eligibility – Appeal

Readmission

- Adoptive parent(s) and the young adult can re-enter EMAS until the young adult reaches 21 if they provide documentation to support that the young adult meets one of the qualifying activities.
 - A new, completed EAAA is required at the time of readmission.

Negotiation the Subsidy

- Negotiation and the process to request enhanced subsidy remain the same.

Implementation Considerations

Implementation for Existing Population

- If an adoptive parent entered into an AAA when the youth was 16 or 17 and he/she has not yet reached the age of 21, the family is eligible for an EMAS.
 - Families will be contacted to be made aware of this new policy.
