1. Introductions/ Review Meeting Minutes

- Minutes Approved By: Kenneth Gibson Seconded By: Wes Evans & Sheila Smith
- Trinity Schwab, the CEO of Managing Entity Central Florida Cares introduced herself. She has joined the subcommittee as an official member.

2. Remarks from Dr. Jay Reeve, Commission Chair

- Chair Reeve reviewed key upcoming dates:
 - Wednesday, June 21st at 9am EST is the next full Commission meeting.
 - The meeting agenda will primarily include updates from each of the subcommittees.
 - The next full commission meeting will convene in-person on August 15th at the Signia Hilton Bonnet Creek Resort's grand ballroom in Orlando, Florida from 8:45am-5pm EST.

Commission on Mental Health and Substance Abuse Suicide Prevention Subcommittee

- The Governor signed into law Senate Bill 914, effective July 1st, 2023. A provision of this bill extends the Commission's charge into 2026 and officially revises the duties of the commission to assess the state's suicide prevention infrastructure.
- The Commission's next interim report is due January 1st, 2024. To meet this deadline, bulleted recommendations from the subcommittee will need to be sent to Mr. Aaron Platt by mid-September.

3. Discussion

- Chair Reynolds reviewed an information gathering template (view this template in Appendix A of this document). She tasked each of four subject-matter experts to convene workgroups on 988, 988 and MRT, 988 and CSU, and 988 and marketing respectively. Accompanying this ask, she requested that each subject-matter expert report back on the workgroup's findings during the next subcommittee meeting on July 25th from 2-4pm EST.
- Anna Sever gave a high-level overview of the Florida Suicide Prevention Office, the Suicide Prevention Coordinating Council (the state's 32-member suicide prevention advisory committee), and the forthcoming iteration of the state's suicide prevention strategic plan. - Chair Reynolds and Gayle Giese facilitated a discussion to brainstorm "ceiling" recommendations. Coined as ceiling recommendations, these recommendations refer to additional, identified opportunities to further enhance Florida's suicide prevention infrastructure and serve as an adjunct to the statutorily required charge of the subcommittee (view the notes from this brainstorm in Appendix B of this document). 4. Public Comment

- Sharyn L. Dodrill was recognized during public comment.
 - She requested updates to the Commission's website be posted. DCF SAMH staff is working diligently to expand the content on the DCF website to reflect the expansion and evolution of the Commission's subcommittees. These updates are forthcoming soon.
 - In response to a discussion earlier in the meeting, she emphasized the importance of recognizing all individuals participating in data gathering activities as one means to ensure compliance with Florida's Sunshine law.

5. Closing Remarks

- Chair Reynolds thanked everyone for their time and expertise. She reminded all that subcommittee meetings will convene the 4th Tuesday of the month from 2-4pm EST through September. Following September, there may be a different meeting cadence.
- Meeting adjourned 3:59pm EST.

Next subcommittee meeting: Tuesday, July 25th, 2023 2-4pm EST

Brainstorming notes regarding the “ceiling” – what do we want to make sure gets in front of the legislature and Governor office? The “ceiling” recommendations further detail the potential of the crisis continuum in Florida. These are thoughtful recommendations provided by experts. They are referred to as “ceiling” recommendations as they surpass the provisions of the crisis infrastructure analysis mandated by statute.
