Opening Remarks - Review of Subcommittee January 1, 2024 Interim Report Recommendations and Commission Update

Commission Chair Jay Reeve discussed the work of the Commission and connections with various bills moving through the Legislature. Advised the Commission on Mental Health and Substance Use Disorder subcommittees should have draft recommendations prepared for Commissioners to vote on during the in-person August Commission meeting.

Overview of the Northwest Florida Regional Data Center

Guest presenters provided an overview of the Northwest Florida Regional Data Center (NWRDC) and information technology services for government and educational communities. NWRDC provides infrastructure services, storage and recovery, managed services, system support, colocation and disaster recovery, network services, and more. Discussed the importance of data governance and establishing data sharing agreements prior to developing and tailoring the technology for involved organizations. Discussed the potential integration of Artificial Intelligence technology.
