They founded what is today, the largest non-governmental provider of social services in South Florida. They collaborated with other social service agencies to address the needs of Miami's growing population, which by 1940 had grown to almost two million. The most pressing needs at the time included: family problems, out-of-wedlock pregnancies, juvenile delinquency, immigrants threatened with deportation, and children needing foster care.

In 2009, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Miami served over 9,717 residents in Broward and Miami-Dade counties providing diverse programs to meet the needs of today's families. Pastoral Counseling and treatment is also available and based on a firm Christian foundation.

The Agency is dedicated to the re-entry into society of those individuals struggling with substance and alcohol abuse, who might otherwise continue their self-destructive cycle of addiction, were it not for the Agency's Christ-centered and therapeutic rehabilitative approach. They seek to be a leader in their community for the rehabilitation and compassionate therapeutic treatment provided to those who are struggling with substance abuse.

New Hope currently provides comprehensive, culturally and ethnically sensitive programs for diverse special needs populations, including adults who are chronically homeless needing residential substance abuse treatment services and mental health services. New Hope believes that regeneration and rehabilitation is achieved when a change in attitude and behavior is accomplished, thus empowering the clients to become constructive and productive members of society through the following programs:

New Hope is the only residential substance abuse treatment facility for single men in South Miami-Dade County. In 1995, New Hope contracted with Miami-Dade County Department of Human Services (DHS) to provide substance abuse prevention services. Since 1999, New Hope contracted with the Miami-Dade County Homeless Trust and currently serves approximately 120 clients per year with a proven track record of meeting and exceeding its contracted performance outcomes.

Scope of Services:

The Village was founded in 1973 as a not-for-profit agency and was the first residential treatment program licensed by the State of Florida, Department of Children and Families. The Village philosophy is to utilize the best science-based information to interpret our mission and to serve our clients. Addiction is a chronic, relapsing disease and is, many times, accompanied by mental disorders and other behavioral problems that may or may not be the direct result of the addiction.

Different modalities of treatment have been developed for adults and adolescents that allow more flexibility to build services around client needs. These services include a wide range of individual and group therapeutic rehabilitation services in both residential and outpatient settings. Behavioral, mental, and physical health counseling is reinforced by vocational/educational assessments and applied services. Referrals and linkages to appropriate health and independent living support agencies are integrated into each client's treatment plan. Adult and adolescent Substance abuse and HIV, Hepatitis A, B, & C, TB, and STD prevention, education, and outreach are ongoing activities. The Village targets youth/adolescents through after school, school based and in-home intervention.

For over thirty (30) years, The Village has been providing comprehensive (holistic) multidimensional treatment to adults and adolescents, males and females, suffering from chemical dependency, mental illness, dual disorders, delinquency and related behavioral problems. Each year, more than 1000 adolescents, adults and/or their families, most of whom are indigent, receive clinical services at The Village.
