- (1). The Defendant is manifestly incapable of surviving alone or with the help of willing and responsible family or friends, including available alternative services, and, without treatment, the Defendant is likely to suffer from neglect or refuse to care for herself or himself and such neglect or refusal poses a real and present threat of substantial harm to the Defendant's well-being; and,
- (2). There is a substantial likelihood that in the near future the Defendant will inflict serious bodily harm on herself or himself or another person, as evidenced by recent behavior causing, attempting, or threatening such harm.
  - E. There are no available, less restrictive alternatives, including treatment in community residential facilities or community settings, which would offer an opportunity for improvement of the Defendant's condition, which are appropriate.
  - F. There is a substantial probability that the mental illness causing the Defendant's incompetence will respond to treatment and the Defendant will regain competency to proceed in the reasonably foreseeable future.

Based upon the FINDINGS OF FACTS and CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

- 1. The Defendant is incompetent to proceed due to the Defendant's mental illness as defined in s. 916.106(11), Fla. Stat., and all further proceedings are hereby stayed.
- 2. The Defendant is hereby committed to the Department of Children and Families.
